

Border County Notes

From our Exchanges

CARROLL.

Miss Emola Little died at the home of her parents near White Rock Friday.

Dr. George N. Walden aged 80 years, 8 months, died at his home in Miami Station Monday evening. The body was taken in charge by the Freemasons who conveyed it to the DeWitt cemetery for burial.

David D. Edwards died very suddenly at his home in Hale Monday morning of heart trouble. A wife, five children and a host of relatives and friends survive the loss.

Last Sunday, while Ern Miller of near Tina was driving down a long hill, was approached from behind by an auto which frightened his team, causing it to run and completely demolished his buggy. After surveying the wreck, he borrowed a buggy in which to finish his journey. No sooner had he hopped up the team, took a seat in the borrowed buggy, the team ran away again tearing up the second buggy. No serious injuries were received.

Elbert Vinson, who runs a restaurant at Tina was badly burned last Friday by the explosion of a gasoline stove.

Miss Leona O'Dell of Tina died Saturday at the home of her sister, of lung trouble.

David Snider died at his home in Tina Wednesday night, aged 82. He is survived by a wife and four children.

Sunday afternoon B. F. Baluin and J. P. Canady of Carrollton, each driving his auto, had a collision in which some little damage was done to each machine. The two machines met at a corner. The occupants were not hurt.

Wm. Bloomfield, a negro working on the railroad east of Carrollton, was arrested Saturday morning on a state warrant charging forgery. He had been forging the name of Paul Wells on one or more orders. He was sent to jail for 30 days.

The little daughter of John Periston, of Carrollton, became frightened when a team the family was driving became a little fractious, and jumped out of the wagon. She was thrown down and one of her arms fractured between the wrist and elbow.

Monday afternoon, H. H. Wilcoxon became overheated, while working on a house, and it was necessary to call a physician.

Seven of the Norborne Land Drainage District bonds, of $500 each were paid off and canceled by F. W. Gibson, county treasurer, Thursday, June 1. With the payment of these bonds, $15,500 of the bonds has been retired. The outstanding bonds amount to $49,500 or 99 bonds of $500 each.

The delivery team of J. D. Craven became frightened when on the Santa Fe railroad, just east of the station, Friday and ran away. The team ran about three or four blocks and through a fence. Mr. Craven was thrown out, receiving several cuts and bruises on his face and requiring several stitches to close the wounds.

The Hale boys defeated the Rothville boys last Saturday over the route to the tune of 6 to 2.

A petition signed by over 60 free holders was presented to the county court Monday afternoon, and the Carroll County Agricultural and Mechanical Fair Association was granted articles of incorporation.

MARRIAGES.

Wm. Humphries, Lawton, Ok., and Wenona Squires, DeWitt.

Frank L. Kresin and Anna M. Plake, both of Norborne.

Frank B. Shull, Hale and Gertrude A. Nichols, Tina.

Harvey A. Scranton and Gertrude Baymiller both of Hale.

Frank E. States and Florence Moore both of Hale.

HOWARD.

William A. Heach died at his home, near Fayette Wednesday.

"Uncle" Rob Dougherty of Fayette, who is 84 years old, met his brother, James, who will be 96 years old in August, in town Friday. He had driven in from the country some 15 miles. Seldom you find two men whose combined ages total 180 years.

During the month of May Fayette postoffice handled the following pieces of mail, incoming mail 84,193 pieces; out going mail 36,615 pieces. Total 120,808.

Postmaster John McEaton received the glad intelligence last week from the postoffice department at Washington, D. C., that owing to the increase in volume of business done by the postoffice in Fayette, his salary would be raised to $2,100 per year.

The trial of Kelly Turner, charged with killing Johnson at New Franklin last August, was begun in a special term of circuit court in Fayette Monday. Judge D. Burnes of the Fifth Judicial circuit at Platte City is the presiding judge. No delays, tardies or parleys is permitted by him. One juror was fined the cost of an attachment for not being present at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. The case has been given to the jury.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris and a girl friend of Bonnefemme were preparing to start to a birthday dinner, one day last week. Mrs. Harris was getting in the buggy when the horses took fright and ran for some distance dragging her, she holding on to the buggy with one hand and the dashboard with the other and standing on the step. She was not seriously injured but her clothing badly torn.

After a brief illness of apoplexy, John Lobban died at his home in Glasgow last Friday, aged 78 years. He left one sister, a stepister and two nephews to mourn his death.

Mrs. Mary E. Thomson, died at her home Thursday in Ferguson, Mo. Her remains were brought to Glasgow for interment.

A peculiar condition was found by workmen on the city sewer now being put down in the east part of Glasgow. At a point, a vein of running water was struck and the sewer line followed this water through the low place in the college campus, and was at a depth of from 18 inches to three feet.

MACON.

The State meeting of the Elks will be held in Macon this year, during the month of June. The Macon people are arranging to have a good time.

Geo. H. Clarke died at his home two and one half miles east of Annabel. Three children out of ten are left to survive him.

A house owned by Millard Gallagher of Bevier and occupied by Mrs. Marvin J. Belcher and family was destroyed by fire without any insurance.

A case has been on trial three days in the Macon county court that has been of very much interest. Plaintiff claims that the sparks from a Wabash locomotive has destroyed the trees in the Bliss Academy grounds, while the defendant states that insects were the main cause of the damage.

John Bevan of New Cambria and a Mr. Muss of Carrollton were in Bevier Monday night presenting a proposition before the Commercial Club to install a lighting plant (acetylene) for the city.

Jordan Hall an old and highly respected citizen of near Macon died Monday of paralysis. He leaves a wife two brothers and four children to mourn his death.

Leslie Burris of Nickleton was drowned in T. J. Eagle's pond Saturday. It is supposed that the boy was seized with the cramps while in the pond and the water was very cold and the boy had been at work in the field and was very warm. He leaves two sisters and a father.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Miller of Bevier celebrated their 53rd wedding anniversary Sunday at their beautiful country home. Many relatives and friends were present. Mr. Miller is 76 and his wife 74.

Ross William Howell, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Howell of Macon died Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stratman of Cherry Box, Shelby county, were in Macon last week on their way to Montana, where they have a son. Mrs. Stratman was ill and so weak that her husband had to almost carry her. Consumption was her malady, but she and her husband were hopeful that the long journey to where their sons lives might be completed before she died. They arrived here Thursday and then discovered the money their son had sent was insufficient for the mother's fare. This fact was made known to Albert Nichols, Saturday. Nichols, always a friend in need, promptly went out on the streets and by collecting small sums, raised the amount necessary to complete the purchase of the railroad ticket. All the members of the police force and many citizens contributed. Mr. Stratman and spent all his money with doctors and medicine, he said, and was very much discouraged. He had tried to raise some money here, but was unsuccessful. —Macon Times Democrat.

Myra, the six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Lloyd of Prairie Hill swallowed a pin while playing at his home last Monday about 4 p. m. The pin stuck in his throat so that he could not swallow, and Dr. Epperly of that place was summoned and worked with him awhile. His parents and the physician brought him to Bevier in an automobile, making the trip in a very short time, intending to take him to Kansas City for treatment to have the pin removed. After arriving here it was found that the boy could swallow, the pin having become dislodged from the throat it is thought through the jarring of the ride and he has not suffered any discomfort since. Mr. Lloyd and the physician returned to Prairie Hill the next morning, but Mrs. Lloyd and children remained here to visit with her brother Milton Phillips and sisters. —Bevier Appeal.

MARRIAGES.

Edward Burton and Ora Ethel Dodson, both of Macon.

Peter J. Dabbell and Bertha Alderman, both of Macon.

LINN.

Mrs. Nancy Jane McCollum aged 84 years died at the home of her son, John and Finny near Hydrant last Sunday.

Contracts for building six county bridges were let to the Monarch Bridge company of Falls City, Neb., by Linn county court Tuesday.

Elmer Bonnan, aged 19 was run over and killed by a flat car Wednesday morning, while employed at coal mine No. 1 at Marceline.

Mrs. Lucy Johnson of Purdin died after a protracted illness resulting from a stroke of paralysis. Four children survive the loss.

Just for "joke sake" W. S. and E. E. Bucklin and Len Kamper of Linneus while fishing near a mill Saturday baited a big iron hook and tied it to a log. Later they noticed the log cutting up in great style and upon examination they found a 53 pound fish on the the hook that measured 11 1-2 inches between the eyes.

Last Thursday Milan voted $25,000 in bonds for the installation of water works. The vote was 463 for, 49 against.

J. A. Swearingen, 45 years old, a business man of Milan committed suicide at his home last Sunday by drinking carbolic acid. Financial difficulties being the cause of the act.

The latest invention of the corn cutting machine by Mr. O. P. Vroom of Linneus is quite a success. This machine in its mechanical movement embraces what might be termed a double reel vertically mounted on a frame on the order of the one horse type now on market cutting two rows and produces an eccentric movement on each side where it is provided with projecting packers which gathers the corn and carries it back from the knives leaving it standing in a straight, compact bunch subject to be removed by the operator. It is also so constructed as to be absolutely safe in operating being much in superior to the older machine.

George K. Denbo former sheriff and one of the best known citizens of the county, died at his home in Brookfield Thursday, aged 73 years.

Jasper Samuel Jones, a very popular colored man died at his home in Bucklin last Friday. Remains were laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery.

MARRIAGES.

Eugene L. Morris and Miss Beesie Schrock both of Linneus.

RANDOLPH.

At about noon Friday Urel Moore, a highly respected resident of Clifton Hill, dropped dead at that place. Death was due to heart failure. He was between 60 and 70 years old.

Carl Overfelt of Holiday, who was brought to the Red Cross hospital last week for treatment, died at that institution Monday night.

William Preston, an old engineer, who had been in the Wabash since 1881 died at his home in Moberly Wednesday. He is survived by one daughter.

Seventy-five machinists and their helpers were laid off Tuesday in the Wabash shops in Moberly. The cause of the lay off is not known unless it is to follow out the policy of general retrenchment in operating expenses.

The body of Mart Gallagher a former resident of Moberly, was shipped back to that place from Denver, Colo. Thursday, where he took his own life. The cause of his rash act is not known. He is survived by his wife and four children.

John T. Smith of Kansas City, secretary and treasurer of the Missouri State Federation of Labor, has written the laboring men of Moberly that he would deliver an address on convic labor, union labor and child labor, June 20.

Mrs. Mary J. Featherston, died at her home Sunday night in Moberly.

Wm. Hayden died at his home in Moberly Wednesday. He is survived by a wife and one daughter.

Frank Brensch, one of the rustling Moberly Democrat carrier boys, while out bathing Friday in Forrest Park lake was riding a log and took a back dive from this, cutting a big gash in his head and hurting his arm and was considerably bruised about the face.

Mrs. Elizabeth K. Heins aged 87 years, died Tuesday morning at the home of her son in Moberly.

Lewis Minor, a former citizen of Randolph county died in a hospital at Kansas City Friday. His remains were buried at Huntsville Saturday.

The remains of William Porter, a former citizen of Huntsville, were shipped in from Texas, where he died, having gone there for the benefit of his health.

Harry W. Taylor, vice-president and general manager of the Northern Central Coal Co., was in Huntsville Thursday looking after their big coal interest. He considers the immediate field the greatest coal producing region in the United States, and its excavating is only just begun. With all mines going at full blast, $72,000 will be paid monthly to the employees in the Huntsville district.

The wrestling match which was to have taken place in Huntsville, at the opera house Monday night between Cyclone Tommy Thompson and Young Hackensmith, did not come off on account of Thompson's wife being seriously ill in Des Moines, Iowa.

Huntsville's second base ball team defeated Clifton Hill at Randolph Springs Sunday by a score of 6 to 3.

Mexico defeated Huntsville's base ball team at Radime Springs by a score of 10 to 8.

The remains of Mrs. Martha McKnight, who died in San Antonio, Texas, many months ago, were brought to Huntsville Thursday afternoon and buried in the family lot in the City cemetery beside her relatives.

The Ben Millers, a St. Louis base ball team, defeated the Moberly Signals Sunday by a score of 6 to 4. After the game, Umpire Genies was mobbed by the fans for his rank decision and would have been roughly handled had it not been for the police, who hustled him to the Merchants hotel at Moberly and kept guard over him until train time.

MARRIAGES.

John A. Mayo and Miss Mattie Patton, both of Clifton Hill.

LIVINGSTON.

The two year old daughter of Ira Graham of Chillicothe fell off a porch at her home Thursday morning and fractured her limb.

Sheriff White returned to Chillicothe Thursday from Ludlow with Geo. Glasen, was out on parole from the Livingston county circuit court. He will be taken to Boonville to the reform school.

Miss Anna Davis of Chillicothe and C. H. Knot of Albuquerque, N. M., were married at St. Joseph Catholic church Saturday morning.

A bunch of gypsy fortune tellers arrived in Chillicothe Tuesday morning and begun to tell fortunes about the city. Chief Dorney immediately called them to the police headquarters. They were given a chance to get out, on which they made a rapid move.

Because of the hot weather and the busy season for farming, the June session of the county court was confined to one day, adjournment taking place Monday afternoon.

Hart F. Nelson of Milan and Edna Jones were married at the bride home in the eastern part of Chillicothe, Tuesday morning. Walter Rightmire shot and killed Ben Holdman four miles

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP HER

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pound, Wis. — "I am glad to announce that I have been cured of dyspepsia and female troubles by your medicine. I had been troubled with both for fourteen years and consulted different doctors, but failed to get any relief. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman. I can't find words to express my thanks for the good your medicine has done me. You may publish this if you wish."

—Mrs. HERMAN SMITH, Pound, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. for it, it is free and always helpful.

south of Palmyra. Both men were employed as farm hands and they became so enraged in the quarrel that Rightmire started toward Holdman with a butcher knife. Later Rightmire secured a shot gun and Holdman turned toward Rightmire and told him "if he was game to shoot." Rightmire fired killing Holdman on the spot. Then the man reloaded his gun and blew the side of his head off, dying instantly.

Mrs. Virginia Bucher, wife of J. H. Bucher, died at her home in Chillicothe Sunday night after an illness of five years. Her husband and three children survive the loss.

Thomas B. Hudspeth of Sibley, Mo., has no trouble with bugs or snakes. To clean the bugs he takes corn to the potato patch and the birds come to get the corn discovers the bugs and eat them. The snake birds he calls them. They catch the snakes by the back of the head and fly with them to a barbed wire fence on a thorn tree and hang them on the barb or the thorns.

Word was received in Chillicothe Monday of the marriage of Mabelle Ireland to Geo. Knaus of Kansas City.

The Chillicothe postoffice was designated Tuesday as a postal saving depository to open July 3. Fifty other post offices were also named making the total number of 500.

Frank Nesmith of Chillicothe died in Garden City, Tuesday night. Besides his widow, he is survived by four children and one brother.

The explosion of some chemicals used by the Chillicothe Barber Supply company in making face lotions, exploded in the basement Tuesday evening and caused a small fire. The fire was soon extinguished and the proprietor was slightly injured.

It is hard for a man to pose as a reformer in his own town. The folks there know too many things about him.

Never worry about a man who flies off and gets mad at nothing. His anger rarely amounts to anything but noise.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Beware the signature of J. C. Watson